To whom it may concern,

I can confirm that Apex Scientific of Maynooth, Ireland are authorised Agilent Channel Partners for all of Ireland. We believe that Apex are well placed to serve our customers and deliver excellent customer service. We expect that they will be able to add value to our product offering through the services they provide and be able to grow our business.

As an Authorized Agilent Technologies Distributor they will have access to our full technical support services as well as commercial and logistical resources to help meet the demands of customers. They will also be kept up to date with all of new product launches and special offers only available by working as an Authorized Distributor.

Yours sincerely,
